Infant and Toddler Program Planning
FACILITATED BY
Valerie Rhomberg from Mothercraft College

Valerie Rhomberg manages the Academic Programs at Mothercraft College, Toronto. She has over 25 years experience working with children, families, practioners and communities, working as an instructor, trainer, licencing specialist, consultant, curriculum developer and researcher.

In an interactive atmosphere, this workshop will explore program ideas appropriate for infants' and toddlers' growth in all developmental domain areas. It will investigate: how best to ensure that the environment is included as part of curriculum program planning; the importance of routines in this planning and their role in supporting skills in developmental areas; the appropriate inclusion of anti-bias components when planning for experiences for infants and toddlers; and brain research information which clarifies what good practices and experiences consists of for infants and toddlers. Practices with hands on materials which support these messages will be provided.
