About the Child & Family Collaborative (CFC)

CFC was established by and for the community of professionals in York Region who provide early development and child care services to children aged prenatal to twelve.

Committees Working Together

CFC was established in 2009 by merging the Child Care Committee (established in 1982) and the Prenatal to Six Years Subcommittee (established in 1998). These two organizations now work as one volunteer-run resource for the betterment of the professionals, partners and parents in our early years community.

Our Work

Committed to principles of prevention and education, CFC creates opportunities for:

- professional development
- life-long learning
- research
- early intervention
- investment in the early years

What the CFC Can Do for You

Whether you are part of a large or small organization, the CFC can give you the support and information you're looking for:
